

We are hiring

Would you like to be part of our dynamic, global and growing team? South Pole is an energetic, global company offering comprehensive sustainability solutions and services. With offices spanning all six continents, we strive to create a sustainable society and economy that positively impacts our climate, ecosystems and communities. With our solutions we inspire and enable our customers to create value from sustainability-related activities.

To further promote environmentally and socially responsible practices, we are currently looking to recruit a highly motivated and dedicated

Market Research Intern (50-100%) based in Jakarta, Indonesia

We are looking for a motivated intern to support our Market Research team for 3-5 days a week for a period of 3-6 months, with the option to prolong and expand tasks. You will research and analyse needs of clients that are potentially interested in South Pole's (SP) sustainability solutions. In addition, you will work and update customer insights to support our Sales team.

Tasks and responsibilities

- Market research on potential clients' needs for solutions such as renewable energy, carbon neutrality and services for climate risks and opportunities
- Regularly screen commitments of our existing and new clients
- Research background information about identified leads
- Brief our key account and business development team to ensure that they have the required information to approach potential clients
- Support the development and execution of marketing campaigns
- Gather and distribute industry reports

Your profile

- University degree or ongoing studies in a relevant field related to sustainability
- Excellent English language skills, additional languages are a plus
- Ability to work independently on multiple topics in parallel

We offer

- Collaboration and insights in a challenging and exciting global company with a real purpose
- Work with highly dedicated and motivated experts of SP's dynamic team
- Chance to expand the tasks and potentially a full-time employment contract
